Seneschals Report

Greetings Unto the Populace of Caerthe,

As you are probably aware, there is a new event policy in the Outlands. Although this will affect our barony, I believe that we can work with it and still host some great events! Notably we will still hold our traditional Twelfth Night and for the foreseeable future, it will still be on the first Saturday of January. This year's event, coordinated by THL Forrester, is a Scottish theme with a great feast to be prepared by Mistress Ursula.

At the end of March we are joining with the two baronies north of us to host a Tri-Baronial A&S. This looks to be a great event and is in fact one of the things which had been hoped for as a new event policy was written - more joint events. Please come and support our artisans.

April brings the Known World to the Outlands for a Cooks and Bards event. This will be one of the best opportunities to learn from the best in their artistic fields. If you have interest in cooking or barding, you won't want to miss it.

Soon after that, though the barony is not set to host any events. That, however, does not mean that we can't host one. In fact, we are looking for a bid for a summer camping event. While this may be a slightly scaled down version of Three Stags, it can still be a great event packed with plenty of fighting, arching, and compotation. If you have an idea for such an event, please put in a bid. Similarly, the kingdom is looking to host an equestrian event in the northern Outlands in 2012 and other events in the northern Outlands in 2013. If you would like to be event steward for one of these events, please submit a bid to the barony.

A final note on this topic is that I have put together an Agreement Form that must be signed by a prospective event steward before I will sign off on the event. The purpose of the form is to make sure that the steward is aware of various things such as deadlines for insurance and proper ways of dealing with money. Although it does add a little more bureaucracy, you will find that it is straightforward and simple. It will be part of a greater event steward packet that will be made available on our website soon. The packet will actually help an event steward. It is truly being designed to be a tool and not a hindrance.

As ever, I am available for questions or concerns that you may have. It remains my privilege, pleasure, and honor to serve as seneschal.

YIS,

THL Jethro Stille
Seneschal of Caerthe
